COURT HOUSE, VANCOUVER.

NOTICE TO ARCHITECTS—COMPETITIVE DESIGNS.

THE Government of British Columbia invite Architects to submit competitive designs for a new Court House which it is proposed to erect at Vancouver, B. C., at a cost not exceeding $150,000.

The drawings, addressed to the Hon. the Chief Commissioner and superscribed "Design, Court House, Vancouver," are to be sent in on or before the 10th March, 1906, accompanied by a specification and report.

The drawings, specification and report shall have no distinguishing mark or motto, the author's name being enclosed in a blank sealed envelope securely attached to the drawings submitted.

The drawings shall include only a floor plan of each floor, section and two elevations, and shall be drawn to an eight scale. The sectional parts of the walls shall be blacked in, and the elevations shall be in line only in ink. No etching or colouring of any kind shall be permitted.

The accommodation shall consist of:—(1.) Boiler room; (2.) Police Department; (3.) Six cells; (4.) Timber Agent's office; (5.) Assessor and Collector's office; (6.) Agricultural Department; (7.) Assize Court; (8.) Full Court; (9.) County Court; (10.) Chambers Court; (11.) Small Debts Court; (12.) Six Judges' rooms; (13.) Barristers' room; (14.) Law Society Library; (15.) Sheriff's office; (16.) Registrar Supreme Court office; (17.) Registrar County Court office; (18.) Tax Cost office; (19.) Stenographer's room; (20.) Grand Jury room; (21.) Petty Jury room; (22.) Witnesses' rooms; (23.) Caretaker's quarters; (24.) Land Registry office; (25.) Vaults for Court records; (26.) Water closets, &c.

It is suggested that the Land Registry office shall be a separate fire-proof building, and therefore the design shall show it as an annex on one side of the main building. The corresponding annex on the other side shall accommodate all offices not directly connected with the Courts.

The design shall be so arranged that additions harmonizing with the original building can be made as the public service may require it.

The drawings shall be judicated upon by Messrs. Darling and Pierson, of Toronto, or by the President of the Toronto Institute of Architects.

The design placed first by the judicators shall receive a premium of $350, and the design receiving second place $250.

The Government does not bind itself to erect the building from any of the designs submitted.

The site of the proposed building is Block 51, situated immediately west of the C. P. R. Hotel, between Georgia Street and Robson Street on the south and Howe Street and Hornby Street on the west.

F. C. GAMBLE,

booming grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, hotels, stores, buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though undertaken, constructed or maintained by any other person or company:

(15.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(16.) To conduct, maintain and operate booms, wharves and piers for the purpose of storing, shipping and transportation; to receive lumber and goods as boomkeepers, wharfingers, warehousemen and carriers:

(17.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(18.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold coal lands, mineral claims, mineral leases, coal mines, prospects, mining lands and mining rights of every description, surface rights and rights of way, water rights, water records and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sublet, contract for treatment of the products of or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein:

(19.) To borrow, receive on deposit, raise or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures or debenture stock, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(20.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company and to create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and otherwise over ordinary shares as may be provided in the by-laws of the Company or otherwise determined:

(21.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in other companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company:

(22.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(23.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice this Company's interests:

(24.) To enter into any agreement with the Provincial or Dominion Government, or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, which may seem conducive to this Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(25.) To sell, remove, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company:

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Similkameen Mining and Smelting Company, Limited," "Non-Personal Liability," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of two million dollars, divided into two hundred thousand shares of ten dollars each.

The Company is specially limited under section 56 of the said Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 5th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

Restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working and selling mines, mineral claims and mining properties, and to winning, getting, treating, refining and marketing of mineral therefrom which objects by virtue of section 6 of the "Companies Act, 1897, Amendment Act, 1900," shall be deemed to include the following powers, that is to say:—

1. To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold within the Province of British Columbia mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them, or any interest therein:

2. To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce, amalgamate and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, ores or deposits and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell and deal in the same, or any of them:

3. To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches:

4. To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights of way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying out of any of the objects of the Company:

5. To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property of the Company or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, trainways, bridges and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the company, and with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

6. To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

7. To take, acquire and hold as the consideration for ores, metals or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

8. To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business or transaction which a Company specially limited under this section is authorised to carry on:

9. To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorised to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

10. To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this sub-section contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in no wise limit, control or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company, or of the Company under the Memorandum of Association or the Articles of Association or by-laws of the Company:

(11.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(12.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any company the objects of of which are restricted as aforesaid:

(13.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects. fe8

The objects for which the Company has been established and licensed are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire certain lands and hereditaments situate in the Alberni District, in the Province of British Columbia, in the Dominion of Canada, and forming the lots or portions of the lots numbered, respectively, 1, 2, 2A, 5, 6 and 66, in the official plan or survey of the said district, and all other lands and hereditaments (if any) in the said district to or in which the several persons, parties of the first six parts to the agreement next hereinafter mentioned may be entitled or interested, subject to but with the benefit of all leases, agreements, contracts and engagements in anywise affecting the said lands and hereditaments, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys, assets and property whatsoever now belonging to the said several persons, parties of the first six parts to the said agreement, in connection with the said lands and hereditaments, and with a view thereto to adopt the agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's Articles of Association, and to carry the same into effect, with or without modification.

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting (but not otherwise), any other lands and hereditaments which it may be necessary or advantageous for the Company to acquire, in order to deal to the best advantage with all or any part of the lands and hereditaments the subject-matter of the said agreement:

(c.) To manage and develop the resources of and turn to account the lands, hereditaments, rights and property for the time being of the Company, in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, planting, building, improving, farming, grazing and mining, and by promoting immigration and establishing towns, villages and settlements, with a view to the ultimate sale of such lands, hereditaments, rights and property:

(d.) To appropriate and lay out, or to give for the purposes of being so laid out, any land for parks, streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens or other open spaces, or for railways, tramways, wharves or for any other public purposes which may be deemed beneficial to the Company, or to make any grants of land in connection with the construction of any railway, tramway or other company, or the erection of buildings for the purpose of carrying on thereon any industry or otherwise:

(e.) To sell, improve, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the lands, hereditaments, rights and property for the time being of the Company, in such manner as the Company may think fit, or with the sanction of an extraordinary meeting as aforesaid, to exchange the same, or any part thereof, for any other lands, hereditaments, rights or property:

(f.) To carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the property of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person, firm or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person, firm or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry into effect, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(i.) To invest any moneys arising from the sale of any lands, hereditaments, rights or property of the Company or otherwise in or upon any stocks, funds or securities by law authorised for the investment of trust moneys, or in shares, stock, bonds, debentures, debenture stock or obligations of any company, whether British, colonial or foreign, or of any authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to sell, dispose of and deal with such investments, or any of them, or otherwise to deal with such moneys or proceeds of sale as may seem most expedient:

(j.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To pay out of the funds and property of the Company all expenses which, with due regard to the provisions of section 8 of the Companies Act, 1900, the Company may lawfully pay of or incident to the formation, establishment, registration and advertising of or raising money for the Company and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or taking, placing or underwriting shares, debentures or debenture stock:

(l.) To advance or lend money to such person or persons, company or companies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or of advancing directly or indirectly the objects or interests thereof, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in British Columbia or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada or abroad:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(h.) To acquire, register and use any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences and trade marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part, and at any time or times.

(i.) To render all or any part of the property of the Company productive by carrying on any of the operations hereinbefore mentioned, or by letting, selling, developing, mortgaging, dealing with or otherwise disposing of the same or any part thereof:

(j.) To carry on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the Company:

(k.) To borrow or raise money by the issue of or upon bonds, debentures, debenture stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other obligations or securities of the Company, or by mortgage or charge of all or any part of the property of the Company, or of the whole or any part of its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing debentures or otherwise:

(l.) To make, accept, indorse, issue, discount and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, letters of credit and other mercantile instruments:

(m.) To establish or maintain agencies for the purposes of the Company in any part of the world, and to discontinue or regulate the same:

(n.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the goodwill, business, property and liabilities of any other company, or of any partnership or person carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on:

(o.) To pay for any purchase by the Company, or for any work performed for or service rendered to the Company in cash or by bills of the Company, or by ordinary, preference, guaranteed, or deferred shares in the Company fully paid up, or partly paid up, or by the stock, debentures, bonds, mortgages, or other securities or acknowledgments of the Company, or by any one or more of such methods or otherwise:

(p.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any person, partnership or company carrying on or about to carry on business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire or hold stock or shares in such Company:

(q.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets as the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to any of its other objects, or otherwise expedient, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to subscribe or guarantee money for any exhibitions, or for any public, general, charitable, benevolent or useful object or institution:

(r.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by persons or Companies having dealings with the Company:

(s.) To sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, from time to time, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, whether fully or partly paid, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures or securities among the members of the Company in specie:

(t.) To promote and form any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities or the undertaking generally of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company; and to underwrite or hold shares, debentures, or other securities in or of any company, and to provide or contribute towards the preliminary expenses and to pay any brokerage or commission for guaranteeing or obtaining capital for this Company or any other Company promoted by this Company:

(u.) To apply for any Acts of Parliament, Laws of the Colonial or Foreign Legislatures, Charters, Board of Trade Orders, and other powers and authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, and to oppose any measure brought into Parliament or any Colonial or Foreign Legislature, or before any other authority:

(v.) To establish in the Dominion of Canada or any part of the world a register or registers of shareholders, and to take such steps as may be necessary to give the Company, as far as may be, the same rights and privileges in the Dominion of Canada or any part of the world as are possessed by local companies or partnerships of a like character, and if required to register the Company in the Dominion of Canada or any part of the world.

(w.) To do all the above things as principals or del credere or other agents.

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. fel5

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows.—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one news paper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

EDWARD VII., by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, etc., etc., etc.

To all to whom these presents shall come.—GREETING.

CHARLES WILSON, } WHEREAS by section 3A of the "Municipalities Incorporation Act," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, by Letters Patent under the Public Seal, to incorporate into a District Municipality any locality in the Province (not already incorporated as a Municipality) under conditions therein specified:

And whereas a petition has been addressed to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council by a majority of the registered land-owners and pre-emptors of the locality in the County of Victoria hereinafter described, praying that the said locality may be incorporated into a Municipality:

And whereas the conditions prescribed by the said section have been duly complied with:

And whereas the Honourable SIR HENRI G. JOLY DE LOTBINIERE, K. C. M. G., Lieutenant-Governor of our Province, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, under and by virtue of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities him in that behalf enabling, hath ordered that the said locality which may be described as follows:—

The whole of the Districts of Lake and South Saanich (except such portions thereof as consist of Indian Reservations) and that part of Victoria District lying to the north of the City of Victoria and more particularly described as follows, that is to say:

Commencing at the intersection of the City of Victoria boundary line with the western boundary line of the said Victoria District, on the Victoria Arm at or near Harriet Road; thence along the said Harriet Road following the said City boundary line eastward till it meets the western boundary line of section 28; thence northward along the western boundary lines of sections 28 and 31 to the north-west corner of section 31; thence south-easterly along the north-easterly boundary line of section 31 to high water mark on Cadboro Bay; thence along the said high water mark to the left to the northern boundary line of the said Victoria District on Cordova Bay; thence westerly along the said northerly boundary line of the said District to the head of Portage Inlet; thence south and south-easterly along the westerly boundary line of the said District on the said Portage Inlet and Victoria Arm to the place of commencement: and the inhabitants thereof shall, on, from and after the first day of March, A. D. 1906, be incorporated as a Municipality under the said Act, and amendments thereto, and hath made further provisions to the tenor and effect hereinafter appearing.

NOW KNOW YE, that by these presents We do hereby order and proclaim that the locality hereinbefore described, and the inhabitants thereof, shall, on, from and after the first day of March, A. D. 1906, be incorporated as a District Municipality, under and subject to the provisions of the "Municipal Clauses Act," and amendments thereto, and under and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained or referred to.

The said Municipality shall be called and known by the name and style of "The Corporation of the District of Saanich."

The said Municipality shall comprise all that locality hereinbefore described.

The Council shall consist of a Reeve and five Councillors, and the whole number present at each meeting thereof shall not be less than four.

The nomination shall take place, and the poll (if any) shall be held at the School-house, Royal Oak.

The nomination for the first election of Councillors shall be on the eighth day of March, A. D. 1906, at 12 o'clock noon, and the polling (if any) shall be on the fifteenth day of March, A. D. 1906, and shall continue for one day only, and the poll shall be kept open between the hours of 8 A. M. and 4 P. M., and Mr. Frederick Turgoose, of Turgoose, shall be the Returning Officer thereat.

The persons qualified to be nominated for and elected Reeve of such Municipality, at the first election shall be such persons as are male British subjects, and having been for the three months next preceding the day of nomination the registered owners, in the Land Registry Office, of land or real property situate within the Municipality, of the assessed value, on the last Provincial Assessment Roll, of five hundred dollars or more over and above any registered judgment, and being otherwise duly qualified as a voter.

The persons qualified to be nominated for and elected Councillors of such Municipality, at the first election, shall be such persons as are male British subjects, and having been for the three months next preceding the day of nomination the registered owners, in the Land Registry Office, of land or real property, situate within the Municipality, of the assessed value, on the last Provincial Assessment Roll, of two hundred and fifty dollars or more over and above any registered judgment, or being a homesteader, lessee from the Crown, or pre-emptor who has resided within the Municipality for the space of one year or more immediately preceding the nomination, and who is assessed for five hundred dollars or more, on the last Provincial Assessment Roll, over and above any registered judgment, and being otherwise qualified as a voter.

The persons qualified to vote for Reeve and Councillors at such first election shall be all such persons as are male British subjects of the full age of twenty-one years, who are freeholders, homesteaders or pre-emptors within the boundaries of the municipality, who have resided within the boundaries of the municipality for one year immediately preceding the date of these Letters Patent, and who shall, before the day of such election, have applied to the Returning Officer, and have had their names placed on the list of electors for such election.

The Reeve and Councillors elected at such first election shall hold office until his successor, or a majority of their successors, have been sworn in, unless he or they shall die or resign or become disqualified.

It shall be the duty of the Returning Officer to enter in a book, in alphabetical order, the names, addresses and occupations of all persons, qualified to vote as aforesaid, who make application to him, as aforesaid, to have their names placed on such list, and such list shall be the list of the electors for such election.

Before the name of any person shall be placed on the list, he shall make and sign a declaration in writing, before some person authorised to administer oaths, setting forth his name, address, occupation and qualifications as aforesaid, which declaration shall be filed with the Returning Officer.

Such list and declarations shall be open to inspection by any person within lawful hours.

Any person may complain that his name is improperly omitted from the voters' list, or that any other name is improperly inserted thereon, and may apply to any Judge of the Supreme or County Court to have his name inserted thereon or to have any names improperly inserted thereon struck off the said list. In such latter case reasonable notice, to be determined by the Judge applied to, shall be given to the person whose name is proposed to be struck off. The Judge shall hear and dispose of all such applications in a summary way, and the Returning Officer shall amend the list in accordance with the Judge's decision.

At least six days' notice of the time and place of nomination and of holding of the poll (if any) shall be given by the said Returning Officer; such notice to be posted during that period in the manner provided by section 30 of the "Municipal Elections Act."

The Returning Officer shall, on the day of nomination, at 2 o'clock P.M., announce the names of the persons put in nomination in that behalf as candidates for the offices of Reeve and Councillors, as prescribed by the "Municipal Elections Act."

At the close of the time for nominating the candidates the Returning Officer shall deliver to every candidate, or agent of a candidate, applying for the same, a duly certified list of the names of the several candidates who shall have been nominated; and any votes given at the election for any other candidates than those so nominated shall be null and void.

If, at the expiration of the time appointed for the election as aforesaid, no more candidates stand nominated than there are vacancies to be filled up, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the candidates who may stand nominated to be elected, and return their names to the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

No speeches or interruption to the proceedings of nominating candidates at the hustings shall be permitted by the Returning Officer between the reading of the notice of election and the closing of the proceedings on nomination day by the Returning Officer.

If, at the expiration of such time, more candidates stand nominated than there are vacancies to be filled up, the Returning Officer shall declare the names of the candidates, and publicly proclaim the day previously stated in his proclamation, and the place at which the poll shall be so opened in the Municipality, for the purpose of taking the votes of the electors according to law; and shall then adjourn the election, and shall take a poll by ballot, and shall cause to be posted up notices of his having granted such poll, indicating the names, residences, and occupations of the candidates so nominated, in the order in which they shall be printed on the ballot papers, which notices shall, as soon as possible after the nomination, be placarded in all the places where the proclamation for the election was posted up.

If, after the adjournment of an election by the Returning Officer for the purpose of taking a poll, one of the candidates nominated shall die before the poll has commenced, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of such death, countermand notice of the poll, and all the proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced afresh: Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate who stood nominated at the time of the countermand of the poll.

In case of a poll being held, the candidates (duly qualified) who shall obtain the greatest number of votes shall be Reeve and Councillors respectively.

Every person qualified to vote shall have six votes, being one for each Councillor to be elected, and one for Reeve, but he may vote for any less number than six; Provided always, that he shall not cast more than one vote in favour of any one candidate, or vote on more than one occasion. And in the event of the number of votes being found to have been equal for any two or more candidates, one or more of whom, but not all of such candidates, being by the state of the poll entitled to be declared elected, the Returning Officer shall, by a casting vote or votes, as the case may be, decide which of the candidates for whom the votes may be equal shall be elected: Provided that the said Returning Officer shall not vote except in case of an equality of votes as aforesaid.

All expenses attendant upon the said election shall be borne by the said Municipality.

The opening of the ballot boxes and counting the votes shall be in the presence of the candidates, if they attend for that purpose.

The Returning Officer, after the declaration of the poll, shall retain the ballot papers and boxes until a Clerk shall be duly appointed, to whom he shall forthwith deliver the same.

Every person who shall have presented himself for nomination, and who shall have been elected a Reeve or Councillor, must serve for the term for which he has been elected, unless in the case of sickness, or in default pay a sum of fifty dollars towards the Municipal Revenue; such sum, with costs, shall be recoverable by the Clerk of the Municipality, summarily, before any Justice of the Peace.

Any vacancy in the office of Reeve or Councillor shall be filled as provided by the "Municipal Elections Act."

The first meeting of the Council shall be held on the first Saturday after the day of election, at the School House aforesaid, at 12 noon.

Until provision be made by by-law in that behalf, all proceedings at and relating to the meetings of the Council shall be held and taken in accordance with the provisions contained in the "Municipal Clauses Act," and all the powers, privileges and duties of the Reeve and Council shall be the same as those prescribed by the said Act.

At the first meeting, or as soon thereafter as possible, the Council may elect a Clerk, Treasurer, Collector and Assessor, or such officers as they may deem necessary, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Council, and receive such remuneration as the Council may by by-law appoint.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed: WITNESS, the Honourable Sir HENRI GUSTAVE JOLY DE LOTBINIÈRE, K.C.M.G., Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this twenty-first day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six, and in the sixth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,430. “COMPANIES ACT, 1897.”

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the “Kootenay Shingle Company, Limited,” has this day been incorporated under the “Companies Act, 1897,” as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 20th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the shingle manufacturing business now carried on at Salmo, in the Province of British Columbia, under the firm name of the Kootenay Shingle Company, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the said business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modifications, the agreement referred to in Clause 4 of the Articles of Association of the Company :

(2.) To carry on the business of shingle manufacturers, timber merchants, saw-mill proprietors, lumbermen, loggers, timber growers, pulp and paper manufacturers, in all their branches, ship owners and carriers by land or sea, and general merchants, and to buy, sell, grow, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in saw logs, timber, lumber, shingles and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used, and to buy, clear, plant and work timber estates, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company’s property or rights for the time being :

(3.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, take on lease, construct, erect, equip and maintain and operate factories, saw-mills, planing mills, shingle mills, pulp mills, paper mills, plant, engines, machinery, flumes, viaducts, tramways, railroads, logging railways, operated by steam, electricity or other power, bridges, harbours, wharves, docks, piers, reservoirs, water rights, water works, electric works, ships, barges, tugs and steam vessels, warehouses, hotels, stores, shops and other conveniences :

(4.) To purchase, locate, lease or otherwise acquire and hold, and to sell, assign, let or otherwise dispose of timber limits, berths, concessions, leases, timber licences, locations or timber lands :

(5.) To locate, purchase or otherwise acquire any water rights, and to utilise such water for generating power and electricity, and to acquire, operate and carry on the business of a power company under Part IV. of the Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897, and to have, take, and enjoy the full benefit of the Power Companies’ Relief Act, 1902.

(6.) To build, construct, equip, operate and maintain weirs, dams, booms, chutes, sheer booms, and to deepen and widen the channel of any river or stream, and to build, maintain and operate booms, piers, piling and other structures as may be necessary for the holding and assorting of logs, and for the doing, erecting and carrying on of such other works and structures as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid :

(7.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any lands, rights of way, foreshore rights, or other real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business :

(8.) To undertake and to carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit :

(9.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm or association, or company, possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company :

(10.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company ; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company ; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company; and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(11.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(12.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(13.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(14.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(15.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(16.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(17.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(18.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing, of any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(19.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(20.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them:

(21.) It is hereby declared that the intention is, that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in no wise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company.
